

OCTOBER

- + I believe something good is always in the works.
- + I have unlimited potential to create whatever life I wish for myself.
- + Every experience I have in this life creates who I am.
- + I choose to attract positivity around me by radiating positive energy from within.
- + I do not force anything to hurry up in my life, for it is all unfolding at the perfect time.
- + I allow myself to experience all of the emotions that arise in me and I go forward with ease and grace.
